

When America-Haters Become Americans

Left: In December of 2001, just three months after the September 11 attacks that killed more than 3000 Americans, thousands of Black Muslims marched through the streets of Mogadishu, Somalia in support of Osama bin Laden's al-Qaida terror network. BBC News 12-21-01

Right: Angry Black Muslims demonstrate against the Bush Administration's shutting down of a nation-wide Somali banking and money transfer system. Federal agents say the business was financed by profits from drug dealing and food stamp fraud, and was funneling money to the al-Qaida terror network. Minneapolis Star-Tribune 10-14-01

There are people living among us who hate us and want us to die. And these killers are not randomly distributed throughout the population. They are disproportionately located in certain religious and ethnic communities. Like the ones now forming in Maine.

The American flag is just a flag of convenience for them. The flag of a patsy country that lets them in without scrutiny, lets them work, go to school, organize, harangue, hate, and then foolishly tries to fit them into some fanciful mosaic of multicultural bliss.

The media like to call them "Orthodox Muslims." That's just a PC way of saying that they are Muslim Fundamentalists. Like the people who blew up the World Trade Center, and the beltway sniper John Mohammed. Of course, they don't want you to make that connection. That's not PC.

Let's Send them all Back to Africa. How's that for PC?
